Poisson point interactions in a constant magnetic field

Takuya Mine

Kyoto Institute of Technology

We consider the two-dimensional Schrödinger operators in a constant magnetic field with point interactions supported on the Poisson configuration. We prove the self-adjointness of the operator and determine its spectrum. We also give some numerical result about the corresponding integrated density of states.